ITS LABORS NEARLY ENDED

SUPREME COURT OF ERRORS WILL PROBABLY ADJOURN TO-DAY.

Several Cases Argued at Yesterday's Session of the Court—Kelly Objects to Paying Treble Damages—Suits Against the Telephone Company—Other Court News.
The supreme court of errors, which has been in session in this city for several days, will, it is expected, conclude its deliberations to-day. Yesterday the arguments in the case of Caroline L. Bradley of East Haven against the Southern New England Telephone company were made. The case came up on an appeal by the defendant, who claims that the verdict given by the jury when the case was tried in the superior court was against the evidence.

Late yesterday afternoon the case of Marshall D. Stevens of Guilford against Michael Kelly, Jr., of Madison, was taken up and it is expected that the arguments in the case will be finished to-day. The suit is brought because that on April 28, 1894, Kelly's team ran into Stevens' when he was crossing the street between the public square and town hall of Guilford and the latter was knocked down and three of his ribs broken. Suit was brought by the plaintiff in the common pleas court before a judge and jury for $100 damages and the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff to recover only $125 damages.

In accordance with the statute governing such cases the plaintiff's attorney asked the judge to treble the amount of damages, as he is allowed to do by the statute. The request was complied with and the damages assessed at $375. The defendant took an appeal from this action of the judge to the supreme court of errors on the ground that treble damages can only be awarded in cases of collision between two vehicles and that as Stevens was walking at the time of the collision, he was not entitled to the benefit of the special statute.

In the superior court yesterday before Judge Prentiss the suit of Henry B. Leate of Guilford against the Southern New England Telephone company to recover $5,000 damages for injuries received by reason of fallen wires was begun and will be resumed Tuesday morning.

Judge Sudley in the court of common pleas yesterday partially heard the suit and counter suit of S. D. Bartlett against Charles Gidney and wife. Both are residents of North Branford and the amount involved is about $200. The plaintiff claims damages for painting the defendant's house and for groceries furnished. The defendant alleges as a set-off a claim for services and for hay.

In the common pleas court yesterday afternoon the case of Thomas W. Corbett against Agnes Cochrane to recover rent alleged to be due was continued and is still unfinished. The case will be resumed this morning.

In the city court, civil side, yesterday afternoon, Judge Dow rendered a judgment of foreclosure in the suit brought by Emma S. Gibbs against Albert S. Johnson. Time of redemption was fixed at the first Monday in July. The amount involved is about $300 and the property in question is located in Westville.

City Court—Criminal Side—Judge Dow.

Richard Miller, seduction, continued until June 8; Michael Doohan, breach of the peace, $7 fine, $13.15 costs; John W. King, breach of the peace, continued until June 29; John Bruce, non support, bond of $150 ordered to guarantee wife $5 a week for six months; James McCarthy, James P. Daley and Felix Morris, trespass on railroad cars, nolle; Frank J. Mattel, breach of the peace, discharged; James Sharkey, William E. Buckingham and Charles F. Church, theft, continued until June 10.

FAIR HAVEN.

Beginning next Sunday and continuing until August 1 eventide services at 6 o'clock will be held at the Grand avenue Congregational church in place of the usual Sunday evening service. There will be each evening a fine musical program to include choir and orchestral selections and a short address by the pastor.

The Dayton Hook and Ladder company is to comprise a portion of the new fire department at Waterside. A hose company has also been organized and apparatus will be procured for both organizations.

Judge Cable of Lombard street has gone to North Carolina on a vacation trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Bailey of East Haven will celebrate their golden wedding next Monday afternoon and evening.

John Parker of the annex recently lost a three-year-old colt from a cold contracted after a surgical operation for removal of an ulcer.

On Thursday evening, June 13, an entertainment will be given in the Grand avenue Baptist church, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the music fund of the church. W. Manning Reynolds, the teacher of elocution, will recite, one of his selections to be "The Uncle," a piece made famous by Henry Irving, with musical accompaniment. Little Beulah Barker, a pupil of Mr. Reynolds, will recite and sing. She is said to be as good as the little Fisher girl who made such a hit at the recent Second regiment band concert. A good-night drill by eight little girls will be given under the direction of Mrs. Walter S. Bishop, who recently presented the same at the Y. M. C. A. rooms so acceptably. Vocal solos by Miss Edith Davey, R. C. Hart and H. H. Palmer, with duets and quartets, will also be features of the program.

Complaint is made that bicycles are run in a reckless manner on Quinipiac street and oftentimes run on the sidewalk to the danger of pedestrians.

The annual Children's day exercises will be held in the Grand avenue Congregational church at 10:30 Sunday morning. There will be baptism of children, presentation of Bibles to all who have obtained the age of seven years during the past year, exercises by the primary department, music by school, solo by Mrs. Brown and short address by the pastor.

William McChene of New York city is visiting his nephews, James and Matthew Douglass, the latter being the genial and obliging elevator attendant at the city hall.

PERSONAL JOTTINGS.

Thomas F. Fitzsimmons of 25 Sylvan avenue is rejoicing over the arrival of an eleven-pound boy, which arrived yesterday.

Mayor Hendrick reported for duty yesterday at city hall after an absence of several days through a rheumatic illness.

Miss Lena Ridgier of Grand avenue left yesterday on the steamer Columbia for Germany to be absent four months. J. Lambert of New York has returned to his home after a visit with J. Kaiser.

John Tierney, Jr., son of John P. Tierney, the artist, held a reception at his home on James street Wednesday night. Mrs. Ell Whitney, Jr., gave a reception for her second daughter, Miss Henrietta, Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 7. It announced the entrance into society of the young girl. She wore a debutante's gown of white chiffon and carried a cluster of pink rose buds. Mrs. Whitney and her daughter were assisted in receiving by Miss Elsie Farnam, Miss Aurell Hooker and Miss Adeline Sanford presided at the tea table. There was a large attendance of invited guests. The catering was by Delbel.

Michael Doherty of this city, who is playing third base for the Augustas, Mr. nine and has been laid up with a sprained ankle for two weeks, has resumed his position on the team.

Dr. N. R. Hochstetler of Shelton avenue is receiving the congratulations of his friends upon the arrival of a daughter, born Tuesday.

First Sergeant Charles D. Nicoll of the Grays, who ceased to become a member of that company last Saturday by expiration of time of enlistment, after serving nine years, has been induced to re-enlist again, much to the gratification of his comrades and the officers of the company.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Grand Opera House.
The patrons of the Grand opera house will hail with delight the coming of the Thomas Opera company, which comes to this popular place of amusement for one week, engagement commencing on Monday evening next. The repertoire for the week will be Monday and Tuesday evenings and at the matinee on Wednesday, "The Student." The company is made up of many well known singers here, James A. Donnelly, Richard Oakley, J. W. Gurville, O. J. DeMartini, Lee Lotta, Misses Ethel Vincent, Emma Gardini, Ada St. Clair and Daisy Oakley. The chorus have been specially selected and trained under the leader, Carl Von Weger. Popular summer prices will prevail. Matinees 10c and 20c and in the evening, reserved seats 20c and 50c. Mr. Donnelly is to be congratulated in securing this fine company for the week, and it is hoped the citizens of New Haven will take advantage of the opportunity offered them to hear good comic opera at such a low price. Another thing deserving special mention is the delightfully cool atmosphere that pervades the Grand opera house. Every detail as regards ventilation and affording pure, cool air being specially considered.

If you want to hear a good opera and enjoy it without being troubled with the heat go to the Grand opera house next week.

The advance sale of seats is now open at the box office, where seats can be obtained for any of the performances or orders by mail or phone 605-2 will receive prompt attention.

Poll's Wonderland Theater.
Good attendance at the Wonderland continues, and the bill is good. Mr. Lina and Miss Van, the sensational European gymnasts who head the bill, are as interesting after being seen twice or thrice as when first seen. Swift and Chase always have something new to inject into their eccentric comedy, while Mr. Hyams and Mr. Collier keep everybody guessing what new thing they will spring in their combination dramatic and vaudeville sketch. The Misses Rice and Helvers put up a charming deception in the shape of a trick mirror dance, and Burt Jordan gives a splendid exhibition of southern negro dancing. Others on the bill who please are Miss Ida Howell, Mr. Vernon and Miss Hawthorne, the Kins-Ners and George C. Davis. For next week a mammoth specialty bill has been secured, headed by the great Huth and Clifford and Lydia Dreams from Tony Pastor's.

A Dainty Dish.
